

We seek:

Copyright Litigation Specialist (m/f) (32h or 40h/week; EU; remote; B2B)

Memories might fade away but art stays forever - That's the philosophy of Nico Trinkhaus, the photographer behind sumfinit.com. His mission is to unite Europe through his lens.

Together with his 2nd company PhotoClaim, he is also fighting for photographer's rights globally.

The problem: We suffer thousands of commercial copyright infringements since companies in Europe have an incentive to steal images rather than to pay for them due to the absence of penalties.

The solution: We utilize the European Small Claim Procedure in a standardized way to recover the lost revenue without the need for lawyers in each EU country.

And for this, we seek your help!

Overview of your duties:

- You coordinate the initiation and lead the resolution of copyright disputes in courts all over the European Union.
- You manage all notices received from the court and act on them in a timely manner.
- You develop and establish litigation strategies utilizing the EU Small Claims procedure.
- You evaluate and improve the success of applied strategies in individual countries.
- You research the varying national differences in copyright law and develop our templates to lead to better litigation success in each EU country.

Your profile:

- You have graduated with a law degree in an EU country and have experience in litigation.
- A Lawyer license for representing a client in court is a plus, but not a must.
- You are interested in photography and would like to help artists.
- You have excellent command of the English language; you communicate clearly to the point.
- You are reliable, have an analytical mindset and high standards to your own work.

We're offering:

- Remote work with flexible working hours from anywhere in Europe
- A unique and novel development opportunity in the field of IP and copyright

Please do not apply, if:

- You don't like to develop your skills and learn on your own.
- You don't want to take full responsibility for your own work output.
- You don't enjoy working independently without a lot of instructions and oversight.
- You're not absolutely excited to find efficient legal solutions to complicated problems.

Still sounds interesting?

Then send your cover letter and résumé as well as details of your availability and compensation expectations to: jobs@sumfinity.com

Important: Please answer the question “Which tools do you use to organize your work processes?” in the cover letter.
